Re-Style Loft Conversions don't only work on the lofts of older homes. They often transform modern properties, as they did for Joanna and Adam Bidder at their four bedroomed detached house in Lodge Moor. The property was built in 2004, and the family moved in straight away.

The Bidders, who have two children - Samuel, 7, and Emily, 4 - wanted extra space but did not want to move house. Converting the loft was an ideal solution, giving their house a fifth bedroom, with en-suite bathroom.

Says Joanna: "We had read about Restyle Lofts in Grapevine, and gave them a call. We liked their friendly and professional approach, and were impressed that they could do all the work themselves, including sorting out planning and building formalities."

Re-Style offer a complete design service. Their in-house architect and structural engineer worked to the Bidders' requirements, and designed a unique steel-beam structure that supported the roof and ceilings in the floor below.

This meant the roof did not need replacing, which saved a great deal of expense. Besides the fitting of steel beams, new joists and floorboards, Restyle installed a new staircase and five Velux windows. The staircase was fitted to match the existing one, and was installed without losing any bedroom space on the first floor.

Re-style erected wall partitions and did all the plastering, electrical and plumbing work. The Bidders' selected a bathroom suite, including a power shower which Re-style then fitted. The project was completed in six weeks.

Says Joanna "We're really happy with the finished job. Restyle were great throughout - the best tradesmen we've ever dealt with.

"They informed us daily what they were doing, and checked we were happy with everything. What has impressed me most is that the conversion looks as if it has always been here."

Re-Style Loft Conversions deal with all necessary planning permissions and building regulations. The company's qualified joiners, plasterers, electricians and plumbers ensure that every loft conversion is completed to the highest standards.
